PRESIDENT'S CORNER

During the past month I had the distinct pleasure of walking my youngest daughter down the aisle for her wedding. The wedding took place in a small country church near Coates, North Carolina. A good time was had by all.

By now, everyone should have received a notice regarding a request for candidates for the biannual election of LMMAR officers as well as various committee directors. I encourage all members to seriously consider being a candidate for one of the open positions. Please contact any member of the nominating committee or myself if you need more information.

POSITIVE HISTORY

This is the final article in the Positive History series. Hopefully I was successful sensitizing you, the reader, to the benefits we derived from the work of those who saw beyond their existing world. And, I hope I selected your favorite person for an accolade - there were so many to choose from. Notice that no political or religious leaders were cited. This was no accident since it is obvious to me that our knowledge of the physical world is light years ahead of the social. We have the knowledge to destroy ourselves but we don't know how to prevent it.

One person of social world significance was mentioned - Andrew J. Galambos, an Astrophysicist. His Theory, The Theory of Primary Property, I assert is a start toward the social catching up to the physical. The one simple theme that best reveals his belief is: Employing coercion to solve social problems won't work because human nature won't allow it.

If anyone would like to have the entire Positive History set, I will e-mail you the P H file in .doc format (no hard copies please). Just send me your e-mail address and use LMMAR as the subject so that I don't assume it to be junk mail. My e-mail address is:

Joke: The Half-Wit

A man owned a small ranch in New Mexico. The Labor Department claimed he was not paying proper wages to his employees, so they sent an agent out to interview him.

"I need a list of your employees and how much you pay them," demanded the agent.

The rancher replied, "Well. "There's my ranch hand who's been with me for 3 years. I pay him $600 a week plus free room and board.

"The cook has been here for 18 months, and I pay her $500 per week plus free room and board.

"Then there's the half-wit who works about 18 hours every day and does 90% of all the work around here. He makes about $10 per week, pays his own room and board and I buy him a bottle of bourbon every Saturday night."

"That's the guy I want to talk to, the half-wit," says the agent.

"That would be me," replied the rancher.

Points to Ponder

We learn some things from prosperity, but more from adversity ... One good thing about being wrong is the joy it brings others ... If you don't grow vegetables, it pays to praise your neighbor's garden ... he who gets something for nothing shouldn't complain about quality ...

What we leave IN our children is more important than what we leave TO them ... Mr. Can't and Mr. Can are different sort of man. Mr. Can't sits down and cries while Mr. Can stands up and tries ... The difference between junk and antiques is who is running the yard sale

Memory is what tells a man that his wife's birthday was YESTERDAY. A cat doesn't have nine lives but a "catty" remark does ... It takes a really honest man to tell the difference between when he is tired and when he is just lazy. A fish is an animal that goes on vacation at the same time the fisherman does ... After all is said and done, more is said than done ...

The best way to forget your troubles is to wear tight shoes ... He has no trouble meeting expenses; every time he turns around, he meets more ... Old age is always 10 years older than you are ... Some people are like blisters. They show up after the work is done ...

Forbidden fruit causes many jams ... So long as you know you're green, you grow. But when you think you're ripe, you begin to get rotten ... Summer is the time when you try to keep the house as cold as it was in the winter when you complained about it ...

Respect can't be learned purchased or acquired - it can only be earned ... In America any boy that grows up can be president, and those who never grow up can become vice president ... He who has said that "talk is cheap" never listened to a child tell what he wanted for Christmas ... Help reduce noise pollution - Be a good listener ...

Roses are red, violets are blue ...The horse that loses gets turned into glue ... In the word wedding, the "we" comes before the "I" ... The fly that buzzes the loudest usually gets swatted Television will never replace the newspaper ... You can't swat a fly with a rolled up television set ... One way to be happy ever after is not to be after too much. There isn't anything that upsets a woman so much as having company drop in and see the house as it normally is ... A bachelor is a man who can take a nap on TOP of the bed sheets ...

The trouble with being punctual is that nobody's there to appreciate it ... A country mile is the distance between an empty gas tank and the nearest service station ... The average sleep required by one person is one more hour ... A closed mouth gathers no foot ...

The bend in the road is not the end of the road unless you fail to make the turn ... The best thing about telling the truth is that you don't have to remember what you said ...

The youth who leaves home to set the world on fire often comes back for more matches ... Compliments are like perfume - to be inhaled not swallowed ...

If you think that one individual can't make a difference in the world, consider what one cigar can do in a nine-room house ...The hand writing on the wall means that the grandchildren have found the crayons ... A wise man never plants more garden than his wife can hoe ... Is it embarrassment or fear that makes the waitress place the check upside down on your table????

If you put the cart before the horse, you'll have trouble finding the reins ... If you are yearning for the good old days, just turn off the air conditioning.

After dinner some families suffer from "dish temper." ... The proof of the pie is the amount of crust that is eaten ...

If people weren't made to have a midnight snack, why do they put a light in a refrigerator??? Dark wool suits and skirts are ideal for removing cat hair or dog hair from furniture ... Why is the person who didn't want to go to a party was the last one to leave ... Beware the flatterer, he feeds with an empty spoon ...

Happiness can be thought, taught and caught, but not bought ... Only a fool argues with a mule, skunk or a cook ... Like a rubber band, the truth weakens when it is stretched.
